

Privacy Policy for SynChange Project

Thursday, April 06, 2023

1. General Information

This privacy policy governs the collection, use, and disclosure of personal information by SynChange, the artificial intelligence-based tools and solutions sharing platform. By using the SynChange website, you consent to the terms of this privacy policy.

2. Information Collection

2.1. SynChange collects personal information that the user provides when registering on the website, including their name, email address, and country of residence.

2.2. SynChange may also collect non-personal information, such as the user's IP address, browser type, and operating system.

2.3. SynChange may use cookies or other technologies to collect information about the user's use of the website.

3. Use of Information

3.1. SynChange uses personal information to provide and improve its services to the user, to communicate with the user, and to personalize the user's experience on the website.

3.2. SynChange may use non-personal information for statistical or research purposes or to improve its services.

3.3. SynChange may use cookies or other technologies to provide personalized content, to remember the user's preferences, or to track usage trends.

4. Information Disclosure

4.1. SynChange may disclose personal information to its affiliates, agents, or service providers who assist in providing its services to the user.

4.2. SynChange may disclose personal information to comply with applicable laws, regulations, or court orders or to protect its rights or property.

4.3. SynChange may disclose non-personal information to third parties for statistical or research purposes or to improve its services.

5. Security

5.1. SynChange takes reasonable measures to protect personal information from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure.

5.2. SynChange uses SSL encryption to secure the user's data in transit.

5.3. SynChange uses industry-standard security practices, such as firewalls and access controls, to protect personal information.

6. Data Retention

6.1. SynChange retains personal information for as long as necessary to provide its services to the user or as required by law.

6.2. SynChange may retain non-personal information for statistical or research purposes.

7. User Rights

7.1. The user has the right to access, correct, or delete their personal information on the website.

7.2. The user has the right to object to the processing of their personal information or to withdraw their consent.

7.3. The user may contact SynChange to exercise their rights or to file a complaint about the use of their personal information.

8. Changes to the Privacy Policy

8.1. SynChange may update this privacy policy from time to time to reflect changes in its information practices or applicable laws.

8.2. SynChange will notify the user of any material changes to the privacy policy by email or by posting a notice on the website.

9. Contact Information

If you have any questions or concerns about this privacy policy or SynChange's use of your personal information, please contact us at support@sychange.com.

By using the SynChange website, project and solutions, the user agrees to this privacy policy.
